Activity 1

Learn About Words

A. Look at the pictures. Read the words aloud. Connect the picture to the word that tells about it. Write your answers in your notebook.

1. pitcher

2. beak

3. crow

4. water

B. Write a word to complete each sentence. Get the word from A. Write your answers in your notebook.

1. The crow has a big ______________.

2. The ______________ has a narrow neck.

3. The crow is thirsty. It wants some______________.
Activity 2

Draw and Write

Where do you get water to drink? Draw it on a clean sheet of paper. Write a sentence about your drawing.

Activity 3

Phrase or Sentence?

Remember:
A phrase does not express a complete thought. It does not end with a punctuation mark.

A sentence expresses a complete thought. It starts with a capital letter. It ends with a period (.), or a question mark (?), or an exclamation point (!).

Read with your teacher the following groups of words. Which group has phrases? Which group has sentences?

A. 1. looked for water

2. near the well

3. picked some stones

4. my beak

B. 1. The crow looked for water.

2. There was a pitcher near the well.

3. The crow picked some stones.

4. My beak is short.
Activity 4

Who, Where, When

Remember:

Who are in a story? Characters are people or animals in a story. Where and when does the story take place? The setting is the place and time in which the story takes place.

A. Read the story.

It's Hot!
by N.N. Hermosa

It was summer. The animals felt hot. Hudson, the cub, rolled in the mud. He rolled in the wet mud. “Ah, that’s so good,” says Hudson.

Justin, the pup, went to a tub. But the tub had no water. “Too bad,” says Justin.

So he went to roll in the mud with Hudson. Hudson and Justin had fun. They had fun in the wet mud.

Who are in the story? Where and when did the story take place?

Activity 46

Listen carefully as the teacher reads the story aloud.

The Ant and the Grasshopper adapted from Aesop’s Fables

In a field, one summer day, a Grasshopper hopped about, chirped and sang to his heart's content. An Ant passed by. On his back, he carried a grain of corn he harvested. He walked with great effort. He needed to take the grain of corn to his home.

"Why not come and have a chat with me," said the Grasshopper, "instead of working and carrying that food on your back?"

"There must be food for the rainy days," said the Ant, "and you can do the same."

"Why bother about the rainy days?" said the Grasshopper; "We have plenty of food at present." The grasshopper sang all day. He played his guitar all day long.

The Ant went on his way and continued to work and work.

When the rainy days came, the Grasshopper had no food. He found himself cold and hungry.

The ant saw him. He pitied the grasshopper and offered him some food to eat. The grasshopper knew what he needed to do next time.

The Carrot Seed
by Ruth Krauss

One day, a little boy planted a carrot seed.
His mother said, “I’m afraid it won’t come up.”
His father said, “I’m afraid it won’t come up.”
His brother said, “It won’t come up.”
Every day, the little boy still watered the ground and pulled out the weeds.
But nothing came up.
And nothing came up.
Everyone said it wouldn’t come up.
But every day, the little boy still watered the ground and pulled out the weeds.
And then, one day...
A carrot plant came up.
Just as the little boy had known it would.

1. What did the boy do one day?
2. What do you think the boy had in mind when he planted the seed?
3. What did the boy’s mother, father, and brother tell him?
4. Did the boy lose hope when he heard their words? How can you tell?
5. What did the boy do instead? Why?
6. What can you say about the boy?
7. What happened to the seed at the end?
8. Do you think it is good to discourage someone?
9. If you were the brother/father/mother of the boy, what should you have said instead?
10. If you were the boy in the story, would you do the same thing he did? Why?
11. Was there also a time in your life when you almost lost hope? What did you do to achieve your goal?
